

Donation a “morale booster” – PDACL repurposes some of Coastal Community’s retired furniture

Wednesday, November 13, 2013 – Nanaimo, BC: The offices of the Parksville & District Association for Assisted Living (PDACL) are getting mini makeovers with the help of some of Coastal Community’s former furniture.

The furniture donation to the PDACL comes in part from Coastal Community’s head office relocation this past July. The office’s short move from its old Victoria Crescent location in downtown Nanaimo to its new headquarters in Diana Krall Plaza presented Coastal Community with the chance to pare down its office furnishings.

“Receiving this furniture is a real morale booster for all of us at PDACL,” says Barb Read, PDACL’s Executive Director. “The funding we receive from the Ministry covers the essentials, but there are very little funds left to cover equipment and furniture.”

“It’s a win-win situation,” says Kel Koutecky, Coastal Community’s Senior Manager of Premises. “The repurposing of our furniture is a great way to help out community service groups. We’re happy to turn this into an opportunity to help others.”
