Coastal Community Credit Union Moves to New Branch

For immediate release

October 23, 2007 – Campbell River: Beginning October 30, Coastal Community Credit Union's Willow Point Branch will be welcoming members and clients to their new location at #3 – 2253 South Island Highway in Campbell River.

The new location is more conveniently situated, has more parking and includes a dedicated meeting room where financial service professionals can consult with clients and members privately. In addition to banking services the location also offers Wealth Management and Commercial banking services on select days of the week.

"The move is an investment in the community of Campbell River," says Susan Shepherd, Coastal Community's Associate Vice President, Retail Services North. "Coastal Community operates more locations in Campbell River than any other financial institution. In fact, we're relocating the Willow Point branch to better meet the needs of this thriving community."

The branch will be closed for moving on Saturday, October 27, and the ATM will be unavailable until the branch reopens on Tuesday, October 30. Branch hours of operation will remain the same.

Branch manager, Shauna Helson would like to personally invite members and the community to visit them in their new location. Says Shauna, "Drop by for a coffee and a snack, and to check out our beautiful new location and meet the friendly Coastal Community team of professionals."
